Often, we think of the food, music, and clothing and holidays that are common in a society as its culture, but these are only some of the elements. Other elements include customs, values, behaviors and artifacts.” 36) Which one is not an element of culture? a) food b) society c) music d) holidays “Humans and palm trees are alike! When you cut the palm’s head it dies. There is something in the head of palm’s tree that when it hurts it will be dangerous for its health. This part of the tree is really like human’s brain. Palm trees and humans can’t live under the water. At the age of 16 they can have fruit. It is like humans that they can have family around this age. Something really wonderful is that these trees love each other. In the nature, palm trees are healthier and have good fruit if they love the trees near them. The fruit of this tree has materials necessary for your body and make your body stronger and healthier.” 37) When can a palm tree have fruit? a) When they love each other. b) When their head is endangered. c) When they are under the water. d) When they are at suitable age. 38) Your body needs palm fruit because a) They are strong and healthy b) They live 100 to 200 years c) They have necessary materials d) Their heads are like your head “Dolphins are regarded as the friendliest creatures in the sea and stories of them helping sailors have been common since Roman times. The more we learn about dolphins, the more we realize that their society is more complex than people imagined before. They look after other dolphins when they are ill, care for mothers and protect the weakest in the community. Certainly, the most common argument in favor of man's superiority over them that we can kill them more easily than they can kill us. On the contrary, the more we discover about these remarkable creatures, the less we appear superior when we destroy them.” 39) It is clear from the passage that dolphins a) don't want to be with us as much as we want to be with them b) are proven to be less intelligent than once thought c) have a reputation for being friendly to humans d) are the most powerful creatures that live in the oceans	۱

۱۰	متنهای زیر را بخوانید و به سوالات داده شده در هر قسمت پاسخ دهید. Albert Einstein, a physicist, was born on March 14, 1879, in Germany. He could change people's understanding of the physical world; therefore, he has been considered as one of the greatest thinkers in science. After graduating in 1900, Einstein had a hard time finding a job. He finally got a job in Swiss Patent office in 1902. This job gave him the time to do some of his important works like writing theoretic papers on physics, especially his Theory of Relativity. He became a professor at the German University in Prague. He began working at the Prussian Academy of Sciences in Berlin in 1914, and soon finished his work on his General Theory of Relativity, which was published in 1916. Einstein was awarded the Nobel Prize for physics in 1921. In 1933, he left Germany because of the strict rules of Hitler. He went to work at the Institute of Advanced Study at Princeton University in New Jersey. He later became a US citizen. During World War II, he wrote a letter to President Roosevelt expressing his worry about the atomic bomb. After stopping his work in the institute in 1945, he spent much of his time giving lectures and working on theories. In his final years, he lost his health. He was hospitalized with stomach pains several times, and he died on April 18, 1955. True / False 40) His job helped him to think about his theory. a) T b) F 41) He found a job easily after graduation. a) T b) F Choose the best answer. 42) Before the World War II, Einstein left Germany and became a/an a) president b) American citizen c) physicist d) student 43) He died because of his a) Relativity Theory b) scientific research c) health problems d) academic studies Answer the following questions. 44) When and what Nobel Prize was awarded to Einstein? 45) What did Einstein do for expressing his fear of the atomic bomb?	۲
۱۱	Kindness is choosing to do something that helps others or yourself, driven by warm feelings. Kindness, or doing good, often means putting other people's needs before our own. It could be by giving up our seat on a bus to someone who might need it more, or offering to make a cup of tea for someone at work. Acts of kindness can have positive effects and can benefit our own mental health and reduce our stress. Kind people improve the lives of those around them and this makes them enjoy better health. It increases relationships with others. Acts of kindness can make the world a happier place for everyone. Kind people can boost their feelings of happiness and responsibility. They may also inspire others to repeat the good acts they have experienced in a more positive society. Most of us think of charities as trying to help others, donating food is the best way to help others because it is essential for human beings. Thousands of people donate to charity to support the people in need and meet their moral needs. True / False 46) Helping others has good effects and can benefit donators mental health. a) T b) F 47) We pay to charity just to meet their moral needs of those in need. a) T b) F Choose the best answer. 48) The word "boost" in line 1 paragraph 3 can be a synonym for a) arrange b) suggest c) improve d) donate 49) Donating food is the best way to help others because it is very a) countless b) necessary c) unsuccessful d) monolingual Answer the following questions. 50) What is the positive effect of kindness? 51) Why do people donate to charity?	۲
