Electric cars will make gasoline cars less popular in the future. Electric cars use electricity that is stored in car batteries and do not use any types of fossil fuels. Hence, they are environmentally friendly. These cars have 12 or 24 batteries which might be similar to the batteries you can find in flashlights or in regular gasoline cars but are completely different from cellular batteries. To get these batteries ready to roll, you have to charge them just the way you charge the portable devices you carry around every day such as your cellphone, digital camera or laptop. You can recharge these batteries either at home or at gas stations. Car engineers are trying to use batteries that hold more energy and last longer. Until such batteries are available in the market, hybrid cars can be very helpful. Hybrid cars run partly on gasoline and partly on electricity.
